High Tea Rules

(applies to participating Room 2&3 students, and family members as well as former students)

1. You must do one project based on a book read on the list.
2. You must read at least 15 books off High Tea List or Variety List.
3. Books may be read or listened to. Parent reading and audiobooks count

Past project ideas include:

- Comic strip of book
- Game based on book
- Movie Poster of Book
- Diorama about the book
- Letter to the Author of a book

If you need more ideas for projects, ask your teacher or librarian. When you have completed the High Tea requirements, put this record in the basket on the High Tea shelf and turn in your project to office staff by April 1st. If you have a large project, please ask the staff where it should go. Everyone must fill out a record sheet in order to qualify. Parents must verify that you did complete the work by signing the list.

The reward will be a High Tea event April 27th at 4:15 at the district office. Those who complete the requirements may invite one guest. There will be a chocolate fountain and fixings, tea sandwiches, tea, water and snacks. Projects will be displayed. Dressing up for this event is encouraged.

Happy Reading!
